

Attitude

- Adopt a positive and respectful attitude.
- Positive words
- Emphasis on strengths and successes
- No discrimination

Communication

- Give clear and simple instructions and make sure they are correctly understood.
- Deliver the instructions in several steps
- Demonstrate the instructions
- Make sure that the campers understand the instructions

Accessibility

- Ensure that all the campers have access to the activity sites.

Examples: access ramp, reasonable distance between the activity sites

Adaptation

- Adapt the activities to the needs of each camper.
 - Make the activity accessible to everyone
- Ideas:*
- Change the material
 - Use visual cues
 - Fewer rules
 - Always start with the basics
 - Divide the campers into groups of two

Tips and suggestions:

- Enjoyment above all!
- Simplify as much as possible.
- Divide games into stations.
- Gather information from the parents and my supervisor.
- Integrate all campers.

To avoid:

Infantilizing.
Emphasizing special needs.
Always assigning the same role to campers.

To remember:

Adapted activities can benefit more than one camper.
