Winner Selection Process

An independent jury of experts in the fields of healthy eating, physical activity, wellness, and leisure will evaluate all eligible activities. Applications are judged on several criteria (see below). The scores awarded by the judges determine the 6 finalist camps.

- The chances of winning depend on the number of applications received during the contest period.

Finalist camps will be notified by email and announced during the week of August 5, 2024.

Evaluation criteria

1. Clarity
 - a. Describe your initiatives clearly and in detail (purpose of the initiative, description and organization, duration, materials needed, locations, number of participants).
2. Impact on campers and counselors
 - a. Explain the impact you've had on the counselors or campers. What did they learn, what did they discover, what changes in behavior did they observe, what satisfaction did they express? What new skills did they acquire?
3. Inclusion
 - a. Describe how your initiatives promote the inclusion of all your campers.

Winning Summer Camp Commitment

1. The names of the winning camps will be posted on the tremplinsante.ca website and the organization's social networks.
2. . A winning camp must agree, if necessary and without compensation, to the use by the organizers of the Golden Legends Contest of its name, its group or representative photo, the voice of its representative, the city and region where it is located, or any statement related to winning the prize, for the purposes of communication and publicity related to the the Golden Legends Contest. Campers' names will not be published without their prior consent.

Authority and responsibilities

1. Power Up has the FINAL AUTHORITY to judge and determine the eligibility of participating camps and the eligibility of potential winners of the Golden Legends Contest and to award prizes.
2. The Power Up Foundation, its employees and consultants CANNOT BE HOLD RESPONSIBLE for any accident, loss, theft or any other problems or expenses directly or indirectly related to the acquisition or use of a prize.
3. Refusal to accept a prize relieves the Power Up Foundation of any obligation related to the prize, including its delivery.
